HONGROMO, TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1893

A GREAT deal of time was wasted at last meeting of the Legislative Council in discussing the question whether the

Secretary of State for the Colonies should be requested by telegraph to come to an early decision on the question of the expenditure of $60,000 for the erection of a residence at the Peak for His Excellency the Governor. We doubt very much whether the Colonial Office has any very clear apprehension, of the setual financial condition of this colony at the present time, but we should think-considering the numerous communications which have recently been addressed to the Secretary of State en The Grove, the residence of Mr | the subject of retrenchment and on the inability of the colony to bear the epormons burden of expenditure which has been placed upon its shoulders that a telegram requesting immediate sanction for an outlay of $60,000 on what after all, most people in the colony must regard as a luxury would be received with a good deal of natural astonishment. The colony is not so niggardly as to reluse the Governor a residence at the Peak during the hot months, and: as a matter of fact, since Mountain Lodge came under the gubernatorial ban, the Governor has had the privilege of occupying one of the largest houses in the Hill District, for which the colony pays a rent of 82,400 per annum. It may be that to rent a house at the Peak for the use of the Governor during the few months in which he finds Government House not sufficiently cool to be comfortable is not consonant with the digmity of the representative of the Queen, but we do not quite see where his dignity is hurt by it. At the same time it may be admitted that, if the colony had a large surplus in hand, it would be, as Mr Belilios says, a right and prudent and graceful thing to build a new house for the Governor at the Peak, replacing the dilapidated structure known as Mountain Lodge, which has now been deserted. But, unfortunitely, there is no large surplus available to be applied to such a purpose, and that makes all the difference in the world: In these circumstances it certainly is somewhat puzzling to find an Unofficial Member o Council putting forward a motion cailing on the Secretary of State in hot haste to senction the expenditure of $60,000 for the erection of a new Mountain Lodge on the ate of the old one, and dilating in language worthy of an inspired auctioneer on the advantages of that sile and on the utility and beauty of the proposed building. Mi Whitehead, looking at the matter with that cold, hard common-sense which is sometimes unjustly described as brutal suggested a motive for his unofficia colleague's zeal which, however much one may be inclined to reject it as unworthy, would, at least, be an adequate motive. However, the gubernatorial summer residence so o oquently described by Mr Belilios is likely to remain for some considerable time, merely a chateau en Lepagne. Had the hon. member pressed his original motion, we can hardly doubt that it would have been rejected, but the Colonial Secretary came to his rescue with a very ingenious substitute which, while bearing seme resemblance to the original was essentially different, as it merely asked the Council to say that an expenditure of $60,000 for the erection of aresidlenge at the Peak for His Excellency the Governor is desirable, when fund to meet it are conveniently available. Even this comparatively unobjectionable substitute was not looked upon with favour either by the Governor or the Colonial Secretary, for His Excellency suggested that it should not be heretofore, free of Extra Charge, to clined to record his vote when Mr Belilios persisted in a division being taken. The result of the afternoon's discussion is that the question of a new residence at the Peak for the Governor remains practically in statu que; for the main contention of the two Unofficia Members who so sturdily fought against the original proposal was For Coast Posts - Waters are packed that, at the present time, the funds to conveniently available. Mesers Chater and Whitehead, although in a minority of two against seven, may therefore be congratulated on having virtually DEPUTATION TO MIS EXCELLERGY. As briefly reported in last night's issue deputation from the Committee of the 'Ode Volumes' waited upon His Excellency Sit William Robinson to discuss with him the feasibility of forming a public museum for Hongkong on a more scientific and popular basis than the present museum and library in the City, Hall. The deputation was received by His Excellency in the Council Chamber after the meeting of the Legisla. Council yesterday afternoon. Captlie. By order of His Excellency the Governor in Council, I have made a new Valuation of the whole Colony, which comprises the City of Victoria, the Hill District, the Chinese Villages in Hongkong, Kowloon Point, and the Chinese Vallages in British Kawloon.

3. The City of Victoria is divided into ten (10) rating districts, and, counting each village, &c. as an unit, there are eighty (80) rating districts, or areas, in the whole 4. The number of houses reported to vocant, and inspected under Section 35 of the Rating Ordinance, has been about the same as in the previous year, when estimated the number of inspections at 8,500. 5. During the period from Let July, 1892, to let June, 1893, Interim Valuations were made as follows :-

In the Oity of Victoria. 56 new tenements with a rateable

54 improved tenements with a rateable value of $67,740 replacing existing assessments amount. In the rest of the Colony. 143 tenements with a rateable value increase of $92,445. 6. The result of the new General Valuation is that the Rateable Value of the Colony as a whole has increased by $6,247 or 0.13

7. There is a decrease in the City of Victoria of $21, 761 or 0,68 percent, accounted for firelly by a continuance of the causes affecting the rental value of property, and secondly by certain tenements having been demolished since the last Valuation, and therefore perties include the new building for the Chartered Bank adjoining the Hongkong & Shanghai Bank, the Offices at the corner of Ice House Street and Queen's Load, the new store near to Mosere Lane & Crawford's, 52 houses in course of construction upon the site of the Godowns, Praya West, near

In the detailed account given by D

When these two missionaries settled at Hokiapu, the scene of their death, the people generally were friendly, but four men whose names are known issued some of the usual placards inflaming the people against the foreigners.
